

I am Forgiven

Forgiveness: to give up resentment or any claim to restitution or revenge

Jesus will forgive you if you ask.

Jesus' Forgiveness Means:

Colossians 2:13-14 (ESV)

Romans 5:9 (ESV)

Jesus places no limits on His forgiveness – Psalm 103:11-12 (ESV)

Ephesians 4:25-32 (ESV): Because Jesus Forgave Us It Means That We:

Verse 25: Are enabled to put away Falsehood and speak the Truth

Verse 26a: Are enabled to be angry and not Sin

Verse 26b: Are enabled to not let the Sun go down on our anger

Verse 27: Are enabled to not give the devil an Opportunity

Verse 28a: Are enabled not to Steal or be Dishonest

Verse 28b: Are enabled to Work to provide for ourselves, our families and others

Verse 29a: Are enabled not to use Corrupt language

Verse 29b: Are enabled to use language that is Encouraging and Builds Up

Verse 30: Are enabled not to Grieve the Holy Spirit

Verse 31: Are enabled to put away all things that cause Ungodly Conflict

Verse 32: Are enabled to be Kind, Tender Hearted and Forgiving

If you have experienced Jesus' forgiveness then you should live a life that reflects that you have been forgiven.

If you have not experienced Jesus' forgiveness than He is wanting and waiting to forgive you.

You just have to ask.
